

Education Services Mission Statement

“To empower all Tribal Members and their descendants with knowledge, skills, and cultural wisdom to manage, shape, grow, sustain, and lead all aspects of the Tribe’s enterprises, investments, and services for future generations.”

EDUCATION SERVICES

Tribal Scholarship Program

MORONGO EDUCATION SERVICES

Learning Center/Upper Campus
11952 Potrero Road
Banning, CA 92220
951-572-6185

Rodney T. Mathews

Scholarship Program for

Tribal Members

Morongo Band of Mission Indians offers its tribal members a full scholarship to full or part-time students attending an accredited community college, 4 year university, or vocational school.

Tribal scholarships cover one each of an AA/AS, BA/BS, MA/MS, and PhD degree and/or one vocational program.

The scholarship will pay for:

- Tuition
- Mandatory school fees
- On-Campus/Campus affiliated housing
- Textbooks
- Related school supplies

Applications may be picked up at the Learning Center (Upper Campus) reception area or you may request an application be sent to you by calling 951-572-6185.

Tutoring and counseling are available for Adult students by appointment only at our Learning Center. The Learning Center offers students a quiet place to work, access to computers and printers, and a reference library.

Local Schools within 50 miles

- Mt. San Jacinto Community College
- Crafton Hills College
- Moreno Valley College
- College of the Desert
- University of California, Riverside
- Cal State University, San Bernardino
- Riverside City College
- Cal Baptist University
- University of Redlands
- Platt College
- California Indian Nations College

The Rodney T. Mathews Scholarship Program also offers scholarships to non-enrolled children of tribal members and for enrolled members of other California tribes. Please call for more details.

MORONGO EDUCATION SERVICES

Learning Center/Upper Campus
11952 Potrero Road
Banning, CA 92220
951-572-6185

